Subject: EXTERNAL-Friday Hearing

Dear Counsel:

Regarding the hearing on Friday to address defendants' interrogatories and RFPs that seek information related to individual prescriptions, please take note that I invite parties to participate in person in Judge Polster's courtroom, with the hearing to begin at 3:30p. (Due to travel I cannot start earlier on Friday. Also, if I could push this hearing to another, more convenient time, I would, but I am in a hearing in another case in Kansas City for two weeks, starting next Monday.)

Participants may instead appear by telephone. Of course, there will be no 'penalty' if someone chooses to appear by phone, instead, as originally planned.

I ask the parties to limit those who will be presenting argument, which will last for no more than 2 hours total (preferably 1.5 hours). I ask Donna Welch and Linda Singer, respectively, to "organize" their side (all Ds and all Ps), and let me know who will be presenting argument; and also to suggest time limits.

Thanks,

-David
